Please read the following legally binding document carefully, it limits our liability.

I, the undersigned, applicant to Framingham Aikikai, Inc. (hereinafter called "Seminar"), understand and acknowledge that I am applying for instruction in Aikido, a martial art involving strenuous exercise and body contact. I further understand and acknowledge that the Seminar carries no insurance against injury to any of its students.

As a condition to, and in consideration of, the privilege of being admitted as a student to the Seminar, of receiving instruction in Aikido, and of receiving the permission of the Seminar to use its facilities, I hereby agree and promise to assume risk and responsibility for any and all injuries, or damages due to injuries, suffered by me or caused by third parties to me, arising out of participation in activities involving Aikido, or the Seminar, whether classes, demonstrations, practices, or any other use of the premises, facilities, or equipment of the Seminar, whether occurring on the premises of the Seminar or at any other location.

I hereby release, indemnify, and forever discharge and hold harmless the Seminar, its Directors, employees, students, agents, and servants from any and all responsibility, liability, claims for personal injury, legal actions or suits, damages or losses of any kind or description, both at law or in equity, arising out of, or in any way connected with, any of the above-mentioned acts and activities.

I hereby agree and covenant myself, and my successor and assigns, never to sue, either at law or in equity, the Seminar, its Directors, employees, students, agents or servants, on account of any such claim, demand, liability, damage, injury, or loss.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have set my hand and seal to this document that I intend to be a legally binding document, on the day and year below written and understand it fully.
